

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, private property ownership is an inherent right and principal safeguard of this, a free society, evidenced in South Dakota and throughout the nation by the fact that over two-thirds of our families own their homes; and

WHEREAS, this right has been zealously guarded by the realtors of South Dakota, who have contributed toward public confidence in real estate ownership by their pledge to uphold the rigid Code of Ethics of the National Association of Real Estate Boards; and

WHEREAS, these realtors will join with thousands of their colleagues throughout the nation in celebrating Realtor Week, May 21-27, in extolling the advantages of real property ownership and the merit of buying, selling, or leasing real property through a professional in real estate; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of South Dakota have received countless benefits through participation by realtors in public affairs, for charitable causes, in educational activities, and especially in the donation of their professional knowledge of real estate matters for the good of our state and its communities; and

WHEREAS, the citizens of South Dakota have enjoyed the results of realtors' dedicated services in public office at every level of town, city, county, and state government; and

WHEREAS, South Dakota has enjoyed increased prosperity and a sounder economy through the contributions of realtors in locating, appraising, and managing factories, stores, and office buildings throughout our state;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, NILS A. BOE, Governor of the State of South Dakota do hereby proclaim the week of May 21-27, 1967, to be--
